Integrated Neurology Membership Agreement

This Membership Agreement ("Agreement") is entered into by Integrated Neurology ("Organization") and the party named below ("Member").

Active Membership

A Member is active when their Membership Fee is current.

Member Benefits

Access to Services

Integrated Neurology requires an active membership for providing all services. These include, but are not limited to:

- Making or changing an appointment
- Obtaining a prescription refill
- Coordinating care with other physicians
- Interaction with Insurance companies on a Member's behalf

Appointments

Appointments may be made, changed or attended only by active Members.

Membership Fees

Plans

Membership plans start on the date indicated below. Membership fees are paid in one of two distinct plans:

Quarterly

Membership may be paid by Quarter, which is defined as three consecutive calendar months from the date indicated below. The fee for a Quarterly membership is $270/Quarter.

Yearly

A full Year membership is also available. This membership is in effect for one calendar year (365 consecutive days) from the date indicated below. The fee for Yearly Membership is $900/year.

Renewal

Memberships may be renewed starting the date following their current expiration. Members with a renewed Membership are considered active Members.

Refundability

Membership fees are non-refundable.

Proration

Membership fees are payable only via one of the two plans specified. No proration of Memberships or their associated fees will be provided.

Payment

Membership fees may be paid by check mailed to our offices. They may also be paid via various online services. Please contact our staff for options. Cash payments are not accepted at this time.

Restrictions

The active Member agrees that they will:

- Abide by appointment cancellation policies
- Pay for appointments and all other services at or before time of service

Guarantees

An active Membership is required for access to the services of Integrated Neurology. It does not imply or confer any guarantees or warranties, tangible or intangible, of any kind.

Membership Termination

The Member is under no obligation to renew their Membership. No formal termination is required.

By signing below, the Member confirms that they have read, understood and agree to the terms and conditions outlined in this Agreement.
